YOU'RE GOING TO LOVE THIS KID!

Educating Autistic Students in the Inclusive Classroom

SPEAKER: PAULA KLUTH, ED.D.

April 25, 2023 | 8:00 am - 2:00 pm Central Time

ZOOM - INTERACTIVE WEBINAR

This Webinar will replay as a recording on Saturday, April 29th beginning at 8 am Central Time. This is not a recording that can be downloaded and replayed at your own pace. All registered attendees will receive a link to the live webinar and a link to the recording replay on Saturday. Full attendance will be taken during the replay and will still qualify you for a certificate of attendance and other professional development opportunities listed. "Live" Q&A feature with speaker will not be available, however you will have the ability to use "chat" feature to interact with other participants. Same registration process for both the live and the recording replay.

In this interactive session, participants will learn practical ways of supporting students with autism spectrum labels and other disabilities within a general education classroom. Topics addressed include defining (and redefining) autism, listening to the voices of autistic people, and seeing inclusion as a process. Several practical strategies will be provided including several relating to communication and social skill development (e.g., gaze avoidance, content-connected materials, teaching to strengths and special interests (e.g., rolodex reader, DIY ABC book), and movement. This session is specifically focused on rethinking - rethinking inclusion, rethinking autism, and rethinking possibilities for all students.

LEARNER OBJECTIVES:

1. Explain autism from the "inside out".
2. Describe language as a tool for support.
3. Illustrate 3 reasons to reject the deficit model of autism.
4. Discover a range of ways to support social and communication goals in the context of standards-based instruction.
5. Investigate how student fascinations (e.g., trains, elevators) and strengths can be used to teach, calm, comfort and inspire.
6. Examine the benefits of offering student-centered support & listening to learners on the spectrum.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Special Education teachers, Speech-Language Therapists, OTs, counselors, general education teachers, administrators, psychologists, psychiatrists, social workers, PTs, principals, nurses, parents, and anyone who works with someone on the autism spectrum, ADHD, bi-polar, or other learning disabilities. This conference is open to anyone who wishes to attend.

If you require special assistance, please contact AEP Connections to inform them of your special needs by emailing: info@aepconnections.com or calling: 833.237.2668
