COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Culturally Responsive Counseling and Autism will review considerations for culturally, linguistically diverse families during assessment and intervention. Attendees will review resources and strategies to support families and provide culturally responsive care. Lecture, powerpoint, examples and question and answer will be shared during this presentation.

LEARNER OBJECTIVES:

1. Define the cultural competence continuum
2. Identify barriers for culturally, linguistically diverse families to receive a diagnosis of autism
3. Describe at least two different clinical strategies to support culturally responsive counseling during autism intervention.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

The intended audience includes educators and therapists working with children and adults in early intervention, preschool, school and community settings, parents, social workers, psychologists and administrators. This conference is open to anyone who wishes to attend. This is an introductory level course.
